

Installation notes for AcceleratorGetADGroupsELB

From control panel, programs and features, remove application named AcceleratorGetADGroupsELB

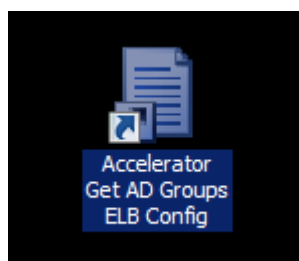

Unzip the zip file into a temp folder, run setup.exe

Set the application pool to one that uses .net 4 (or create a new one if desired)

Click next a couple of time to start installation

A shortcut to the configuration application can be found on the desktop:

Accelerator Get AD Groups ELB - Configuration

No Group Message: Not Found

Domain: 192.168.1.146

Domain User: Administrator

Password: *****

vCloud OU: OU=vCloud

Trace Log: ☐

Save Quit

No Group Message = Message to be displayed to the user if no AD groups are detected

Domain = IP address of the target domain server

User = Domain user with admin rights (or at least have rights to search for users/groups)

Password = Domain users password

vCloud OU = The name of the OU that contains the vCloud groups that you wish to be displayed to the user

Trace Log = Check if logging is required (only for testing, should be off for production)

The URL of the external list box (use to configure the adapter/external system will be):

<http://<server>/AcceleratorGetADGroupsELB/AcceleratorGetADGroupsELB.asmx>